Executive Summary

- Real GDP grew by 2.1% in 2024 and is projected to grow by an average of 2.0% between 2025-27⁽¹⁾, outperforming Euro Area growth
- Domestic demand is set to continue supporting economic growth, while external demand faces headwinds due to global trade tensions
- Portugal has a diversified and open economy, with manufacturing (mechanical & electronics, chemicals & plastics, automotive & mobility, textiles & clothing and renewables) as well as travel and tourism, driving the export sector (ca. 50% of GDP)
- The capital and current accounts are expected to remain in surplus, suggesting that net external debt will continue on a downward trajectory
- Public accounts are in surplus (1.3% of GDP in 2023 and 0.5% in 2024) and are expected to remain so in the coming years ⁽²⁾, with tax revenues growth accommodating the adoption of policy measures aimed to increase households' disposable income and to improve the country's competitiveness
- High primary balances combined with economic growth have resulted in a sharp decline of public debt (93.6% of GDP in 2024, -40.5 pp vis-à-vis the 2020 peak) and will continue to bring debt down by 2 to 4 pp yearly, as part of a process of deleveraging of the entire economy
- Profitability in the banking sector holds up well amid falling interest rates
- Prudent public debt management has kept risks at bay, with a lower refinancing risk (around 40% for 5 years) and a safe weighted average maturity (above 7 years)
- Despite the increase in net cash requirements of the State, net issuance of PGB remains stable at around EUR 8 billion in 2025
- Upgrading trend in credit ratings, currently at A3 | Stable by Moody's; A+ | Stable by S&P; A | Stable by Fitch; A (high) | Stable by DBRS, and A | Stable by Scope, acknowledging a solid and improving economic outlook
